- Must be able to use a computer and a variety of software programs, including Microsoft Word, Excel and Outlook, as well as operate all standard office equipment, including telephones, fax machines, digital scanners and copy machines.
- Good numerical skills in order to be able to prepare travel claims and other documents using computer spreadsheets are required.
- Good organizational skills are required.

JOB KNOWLEDGE: A strong knowledge of standard secretarial practices in an office environment is required. A firm grasp of the organizational structure of the embassy and the functions of various sections is required. Knowledge of contact protocols for both host government ministries and the embassy offices is also required and should be developed continuously.

FOR FURTHER INFORMATION: The complete position description listing all of the duties and responsibilities may be obtained by contacting the Human Resources Office (8531-4500).

SELECTION PROCESS: When qualified, applicants who are U.S. Citizen Eligible Family Members (USEFMs) and/or preference-eligible U.S. Veterans are given a preference in hiring. Therefore, it is essential that these applicants make themselves known as having a hiring preference and specifically address the required qualifications above in their application.

HIRING PREFERENCE ORDER:

- (1) USEFM who is ALSO a preference-eligible U.S. Veteran
- (2) USEFM OR a preference-eligible U.S. Veteran
- (3) FS on LWOP

ADDITIONAL SELECTION CRITERIA:

1. Management may consider the following when determining successful candidacy: nepotism, conflicts of interest, budget, and residency status.
2. Current OR employees serving a probationary period are not eligible to apply. Current OR employees with an Overall Summary Rating of Needs Improvement or Unsatisfactory on their most recent Employee Performance Report (EPR) are not eligible to apply.
3. Current NOR employees hired on a Family Member Appointment (FMA) or a Personal Service Agreement (PSA) are not eligible to apply within the first 90 calendar days of their employment, unless they have a When Actually Employed (WAE) work schedule.

4. The candidate must be able to obtain and hold a Top Secret security clearance.
5. Candidates who are EFMs, USEFMs, AEFMs, or MOHs must have at least six months remaining on their sponsor's tour of duty to be considered eligible to apply for this position.

HOW TO APPLY: Applicants must submit the following documents to be considered:

1. Universal Application for Employment (UAE) (Form DS-174), which is available on our website or by contacting Human Resources. (See "For Further Information" above); and
2. Any additional documentation that supports or addresses the requirements listed above (e.g. transcripts, degrees, etc.)
3. Copy of passport and visa showing Chinese Government approval to legally reside and work for the U.S. Government in China.
4. Applicants claiming a U.S. Veteran's preference must submit written documentation confirming eligibility (e.g., Member Copy 4 of Form DD-214, Letter from the Veteran's Administration, or certification documenting eligibility under the VOW Act with an expected discharge no later than 120 days after the certification is submitted) by the closing date of the vacancy announcement. If the written documentation confirming eligibility is not received in the HR office by the closing date of the vacancy announcement, the U.S. Veteran's preference will not be considered in the application process. Specific criteria for receiving a U.S. Veteran's preference may be found in HR/OE's Family Member Employment Policy (FMEP).
5. Candidates who have previously worked for the U.S. Government should provide a copy of their most recent SF-50, required (if applicable)
6. A cover letter addressing the required qualifications detailed in the vacancy announcement and how the applicant meets these qualifications is recommended.
